Sri Karpaga Vinayagar Sri Pandurangan Aalaya Rajagopura Thiruppani

Birth and Growth of the Temple

With the benign blessings of the Kanchi Seer, Maha Periyaval, Sri Chandrasekarendra Saraswathi Swamigal, two Sannidhies, one for Sri Karpaga Vinayagar and the other for Sri Anjali Anjaneyar were built at Santhi Nagar, Adambakkam, Chennai and consecrated during 1995. The very next year saw another sannidhi for Lord Murugan. Structures for Durgai Amman, Dakshinamurthy and Navagrahams were raised in 2001. A beautiful sannidhi for Sri Rukmini sametha Sri Pandurangan, reminiscing the Pandaripuram temple, was later built and it's Kumbabhishekam was conducted in 2004 and after that entire temple was popularly called as 'Sri Karpaga Vinayagar Sri Pandurangan temple'. Renovation and kumbabhishekam of Murugan sannidhi took place in 2013. After an elaborate thiruppani for six months, for all sannidhies, Maha Kumbabhishekam was held on June 17, 2016.

Main festivals at the Temple

Apart from routine daily pooja in every sannidhi, on special occasions, maha abhishekam accompanied by Veda ghosham and bhajans, special alamkarams, poojas and neivedyam are offered to the respective deity, and taken on procession in the evening accompanied by Bhajans of Sri Vittal Bhajan Mandali Bhagavathars. Veedi Ula (taking on procession along the four streets around the Temple) on Sukla Chaturthi, Sukla Sashti and all Ekadasi Days, for the respective deity, is a regular event, amounting to more than 60 days in a year. Daily morning Prabodhanam and night Dolothsavam are must for Pandurangan, as in Pandaripuram. Laksharchanai to Vinayagar during Vinayaga Chaturthi, to Murugan during Vaikasi Visakam, to Anjaneyar during Hanumath Jayanthi and to Pandurangan just before Vaikunda Ekadasi in the month of Margazhi, are performed every year. Kanchi Maha Periyaval's Janma nakshatram (birth day) is devotedly celebrated with Maharudra japam etc. Aadi Krithigai is observed by the devotees by taking Paal (milk) Kavadi to Lord Murugan. Ashada Ekadasi during Ashada month, Sarva Udhana Ekadasi during Karthigai month and Vaikunda Ekadasi, are so special to devotees of Lord Pandurangan when they are allowed to enter the sanctum sanctorum and have SPARSA DHARSAN (touching the lotus feet of the deity and praying). Devotees from all over Chennai throng the temple throughout the day for this opportunity. During entire Margazhi month, early morning Veedi Bhajanai and special poojas are big attraction for sevathies. Sri Vittal Bhajan Mandali Bhagavathars, celebrate Abhang Sammelanam during last week of January every year. So also music lovers under Sapthaswaralaya celebrate Annual day and St. Thyagaraja Aradhana festival, with musical extravaganza, during May-June every year, in this temple. The Samajam has committed for Anna Dhanam to public on every first Sunday of the month.

Present Need

Construction of a new Rajagopuram for the temple, has been the long desire of the devotees of this temple. Hence it has been decided to construct a FIVE TIERED beautiful and imposing Rajagopuram, with inspiring statues of the God's various forms. So our endeavour would be :

1. to raise a befitting Rajagopuram
2. to raise the walls on all sides of the temple
3. to change the flooring with proper tiles
4. to conduct the Kumbabishekam

Holy Blessings

Both the Mahasannidhanams of Sringeri Saradha Peetam, both the Acharyas of Kanchi Kamakoti Peetam, Sri Sri Omkarananda Swamigal of Bhuvaneswari Peetam and Sri Thukaram Ganapathy Maharaj, have showered their holy blessings for the successful completion of this great task. Further we believe with the divine power of the presiding deities of the temple, added with the dedicated cooperation of the devotees, that we will complete the task fully, remarkably, and in time.

Devotees contributions

Above total holy task involves huge expenditure, needing several lakhs of Rupees. Only devotees' liberal donations will make us achieve the great purpose, which will ultimately result in ever pouring blessings from the Almighty.
